Tuxedo, N. Y., Sept. 21.—James W. Alexander, former president of the Equitable Life Assurance society, died tonight at the home of his son here after an illness of several months.

Mr. Alexander succeeded Henry B. Hyde as president of the Equitable in 1899. The Hughree investigation of life insurance companies in 1965-98 was provoked by Mr. Alexander and James H. Hyde, resigned from the Equitable in the spring of 1906. Mr. Alexander was born July 18, 1839.

San Antonio, Texas, Sept. 21.—Three ipments of arms and ammunities buy these mules and lay the tracks and provide a market for the coal. We are partners, that's what we are, and I want to do business with you on that principle."

Then Mr. Rockefeller turned leave. "Not as Bad as Painted." "You are not as bad as you are painted," remarked one of the miners as he lifted his pick and went back to work, Just before leaving the mine the party passed a mule patiently waiting for his car to be leaded for another trip down the long passageway to the Rebukes Mule Driver.

Mr. Rockefeller began talking to the mule driver, then suddenly: "Look there,"C" he demanded, "why is that mule chafed and bleeding from the harness". The embarrassed driver the narpess the emparassed driver stammered on explanation. Mr. Rocke-feller went around the animal pointing out several places where its skin had been worn by the harness. Finally the combined eloquence of all the mine officials present sufficed to persuade the man of millions that "green" mules always suffered abrasions from the harness until their skin became cal-loused. Then, half satisfied, Mr. Rocke-feller resumed his walk.

VIRTUALLY IN ACCORD ON ANGLO-FRENCH CREDIT All Details Settled Except Two Un

important Ones. New York, Sept. 21 .- Borrowers and virtual accord on all details of the proposed loan except two. These, it was said, were not of prime import-Formal proclamation of the success of the negotiations is expected within three or four days and possibly within forty-eight hours.

Persistent reports were current dur ing the day that the entire matter would be settled tomorrow and that a formal announcement might be expected within twenty-four hours. This in view of the fact that pen has not yet been put to paper by the negotiators, was said to be a bit prema-ture But there was unanimous con-firmation of the report that both parties to the proceedings were very near together in their plans.

More progress was said to have been made today than on any other two preceding days. A rough inventory of what was accomplished, it was said, not be guaranteed that they will be excluded from the loan operation, it is the present tentative plan to continue paying for them by shipments of gold and American securities from London and Paris to New York. The size of the loan has been deshe finitely agreed to, subject, of course, to eleventh hour revision. It will be less Naval Attache. Washington, Sept. 21.—So far no evidence has reached here to confirm reports that the Hesperian was torpedoed. Secretary Daniels said tonight he had not yet received the report of the naval attache on his examination of the torpedo fragments said to have been found on the liner. On the evi-dence available up to this time, offclais of both the navy and state de-partments have been inclined to agree with the view announced from Berlin that the Hesperian struck a mine.

GERMAN STEAMER WITH 300 TONS OF DYNAMITE. Must Get Out of New York Harber

tary McAdoo to see that the German steamship Magdeburs gets out of New York Harbor or disposes of 200 tons of dynamite she has aboard. The vessel has been at New York ever since the European war began and the war and treasury departments have concluded her presence is a menace. As she cannot leave without running the gauntiet of British cruisers off the coast, officials here think the dynamite will be sold.
